Intergroup News

The Appalachian Regional Round Up is right around the corner!

May 16-18 in Kingsport ,TN.

Registration and information on speakers can be found at:

<https://www.appalachianregionalroundup.com/>

The Hotline has a couple of open slots if you have been thinking about ways to help another alcoholic. More information can be found at

<https://www.etiaa.org/hotline-committee/>

....including an updated instruction sheet.

The Spanish Meeting in a Pocket has been a hit! We are currently working on newcomer packets. One item is on back order with AAWS and as soon as it arrives the packets will be on the shelf.

Wisdom From The Rooms

Don't forget to put some "Come Back Sauce" on every one you meet at a meeting.

I know God got me sober because he's the only one I asked! -- Jimmy L.

And finally the pain of hanging on was greater than the pain of letting go. -- Laurie-Anne L.

No matter how far along the road I go, I'm still the same distance from the ditch."-- Jim M.

I was a self-made man and I worshiped my creator. -- Gary M.

We are not all "Getting Older"; we are one day closer to meeting God. -- Stu K.

For me, fear is sometimes the realization that I am gripping the steering wheel too hard - and I'm not even supposed to be driving! — Chris C.

Why We Were Chosen

God in HIS wisdom has selected this group of men and women to be the purveyors of His Goodness. In selecting them through whom to bring about this phenomenon, He went not to the proud, the mighty, the famous or the brilliant. He went to the humble, to the sick, to the unfortunate – He went to the drunkard, the so-called weakling of the world.

Well might he have said to us – into your weak and feeble hands I have entrusted a power beyond estimate. To you has been given that which had been denied the most learned of your fellows. Not to scientists or statesmen, not to wives or mothers, not even to my priests or ministers have I given this gift of healing other alcoholics which I entrust to you.

It must be used unselfishly. It carries with it grave responsibility. No day can be too long, no demands upon your time can be too urgent, no case too pitiable, no task too hard, no effort too great. It must be used with tolerance for I have restricted its application to no race, no creed and no denomination. Personal criticism you must expect, lack of appreciation will be common, ridicule will be your lot – your motives will be misjudged. Success will not always attend your efforts in your work with other alcoholics. You must be prepared for adversity, for what men call adversity is the ladder you must use to ascend the rungs toward spiritual perfection. And remember, in the exercise of this power I shall not exact of you beyond your capabilities.

You are not selected because of exceptional talents, and be careful always if success attends your efforts, not to ascribe to personal superiority, that to which you can lay claim only by virtue of MY gift.

If I had wanted learned men to accomplish this mission, the power would have been entrusted to the physician and the scientist. If I had wanted eloquent men, there would have been many anxious for the assignment, for talk is the easiest used of all talents with which I have endowed mankind. If I had wanted scholarly men, the world is filled with better qualified men than you who would have been available. You were selected because you have been the outcasts of the world, and your long experience as drunkards has made, or should make you humbly alert to the cries of distress that come from the lonely hearts of alcoholics everywhere. Keep ever in mind the admission you have made on the day of your entrance into AA, namely, that you are powerless and that it was only with your willingness to turn your life and will into My keeping, that relief came to you...

This is an often seen piece of AA literature is a small pamphlet called "Why We Were Chosen". The source of this pamphlet is a speech given by Judge John T. on the 4th Anniversary of the Chicago Group in 1943.

How can groups participate?

To help support AA's essential services, the General Service Conference suggests that individual groups, through an informed group conscience, adopt a specific contribution plan tailored to meet the group's financial situation. Once the basic group expenses have been taken care of (for example, rent, refreshments, AA literature, Grapevine literature, local meeting lists, GSR travel expenses to attend service functions) and a "prudent reserve" has been set aside to cover any emergency contingencies that might arise, the group may decide to further carry the message by sending money to the following AA service entities.

- The local district, which communicates directly with the groups, providing the district group conscience for the area assemblies and serving as a link between the area delegates and the GSRs.
- The area committee, which coordinates vital AA activities over a broad geographic area, sends a delegate to the annual General Service Conference, holds area assemblies to determine the needs of the Fellowship, and provides information at all levels of service.
- The local intergroup or central office, which may provide phone service for Twelfth Step calls and other inquiries, coordination of group activities, AA literature sales, institutions work, public information, and cooperation with the professional community activities.
- AA's General Service Office, which functions as a storehouse of AA information, communicating with members and groups around the world, publishes AA literature, and supplies information and experience to professionals and others interested in AA.

Points to Ponder

Time...

Is the only currency you spend without ever knowing your balance.

Use it wisely...

A Tongue has no BONES but it is strong enough to break a HEART.

Be CAREFUL
with your WORDS

Sometimes I shock myself with the smart stuff I say & do. Then, there are times when I try to get out of the car with my seat belt on
